File No. 7042.13805 Title Order No. 1625525 MIN No. 100015700045217920 APN 014-1523-001 YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST, DATED 04/11/05. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. A public auction sale to the highest bidder for cash, cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, check drawn by state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, or savings association, or savings bank specified in §5102 to the Financial code and authorized to do business in this state, will be held by duly appointed trustee. The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligation secured by said Deed of Trust. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. Trustor(s): JEFF P CLARKE, AND LYNN D CLARKE, HUSBAND AND WIFE AS JOINT TENANTS Recorded: 04/19/05, as Instrument No. 2005052870, of Official Records of SONOMA COUNTY, California. Date of Sale: 10/28/14 at 10:00 AM Place of Sale: In the Plaza at Fremont Park located at 860 Fifth Street, Santa Rosa, CA The purported property address is: 2717 CREEKSIDE RD, SANTA ROSA, CA 95405 Assessors Parcel No. 014-523-001 The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is $521,984.98. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid, plus interest. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the beneficiary, the Trustor or the trustee. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 877-484-9942 or 800-280-2832 or visit this Internet Web site www.USA-Foreclosure.com or www.Auction.com using the file number assigned to this case 7042.13805. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Date: October 2, 2014 NORTHWEST TRUSTEE SERVICES, INC., as Trustee Victoria Gutierrez, Authorized Signatory 1241 E. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF Bonita Ann Lease CASE NO. 87206

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will, or estate or both, of: Bonita Ann Lease A Petition for Probate has been filed by: Dana P. Wasniak in the Superior Court of California, County of Sonoma. The Petition for Probate requests that: Dana P. Wasniak be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. X The Petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 11-26-14, at 8:30 a.m. in Probate Dept., Rm. 18, located at 3055 Cleveland Ave., Santa Rosa, CA 95403. If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a formal Request for Special Notice (FORM DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code §1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. FILED: OCT 15, 2014 Gary J. Passarino, Esq. Public Notice Requests for Proposals for Adult Protective Services - Geropsychologist Consultant The Sonoma County Human Services Department, Adult and Aging Services Division, is issuing a Request for Proposal (RFP) for a California State licensed psychologist Geropsychologist Consultant for the Adult Protective Services (APS) program. APS social workers investigate abuse and neglect involving seniors ages 60 and older and dependent adults. Types of abuse include physical, sexual, psychological, abandonment, abduction, isolation, neglect, and financial abuse. The services requested of the APS Geropsychologist Consultant (AGC) are: through consultative visits and/or neuropsychological testing and assessments, to identify the client's social and psychological strengths, limitations, or deficits which impact his/her ability to make healthcare or financial decisions. This assessment will assist the APS program in identifying the appropriate interventions for their clients. The AGC will work collaboratively with the Adult Protective Services Program to ensure a holistic comprehensive plan is developed to complete the investigation and provide protective services. Approximately $100,000 will be available for the period of January 12, 2015 - June 30, 2016. Applicants must submit a Notice of Intent (NOI) by 2:00 PM on October 31, 2014. All interested applicants are encouraged to apply. The RFP will be available on the Sonoma County Purchasing website: http://www.co.sonoma.ca.us/purchasing/index.htm posted under "Request for Proposal" on October 21, or you can obtain a copy by sending an email request to Allegra Wilson at awilson@schsd.org. SONOMA COUNTY HISTORY In the 1930s Noted winemaker Julio Gallo began buying grapes in the county; the company eventually became the second largest vineyard owner in the county, behind Kendall-Jackson. Son Bob Gallo produced high-end wines at Gallo Sonoma in Healdsburg. Press Democrat publisher E.L. Finley rallied support for the building of the Golden Gate Bridge and opened radio station KSRO in 1937 and wrote a major history of Sonoma County. Numerous railroad lines discontinued service. A Tin Lizzie Derby at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds in the late 1930s ended up with 22 of 50 cars in a huge pileup; the only injury: a broken arm. Marguerite Hahn moved to Cotati and became the town librarian and newspaper correspondent. As the Depression deepened, growth was reported in soup kitchen activity and assistance efforts for the poor. The number of retail stores in the county dropped from 1,948 to 1,298 by 1935. The California Conservation Corps and the WPA hospital, school and other projects helped the county survive. Dance palaces such as the Grove and the Rio Nido Lodge attracted vacationers to the Russian River. Well-known bands appeared, including Horace Heidt, Harry Owens and His Royal Hawaiians, Harry James, Phil Harris and Glenn Miller. The Harry Harris family sold the Rio Nido resort in 1953. Industrialist Leonard Howarth left funds for parks, including Howarth Park and Lake Ralphine, both heavily used since the 1950s. Lawyer/judge/school board president Hilliard Comstock became a major figure in county politics into the 1960s. Many political hopefuls sought his blessing before running for office. In 1930s during the Depression, he slowed efforts to foreclose on delinquent farmers. Guerneville realtor E.J. (Nin) Guidotti spent 23 years on the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors, modernizing the board and winning friends and enemies before retiring in 1964. Improved fruit drying methods helped spur the apple industry. With help from market owners and butchers, Santa Rosa's "Dad" Burchell set up a soup kitchen on an empty lot in the depths of the Depression. Softball became a popular community sport in the county. Petaluma's George Duke became a prominent boxer, making the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame. Redwood Players became a popular theater group in Cloverdale. Mirabel Park drew San Francisco vacationers for dancing, fun at the beach and skating; it included a parking lot for 2,000 cars. Copyright © 2010 Sonoma County Historical Society P.O.
